ORGANIC
COMPOUNDS

LOW INPUT & MULTI PURPOSE CROP

Cardoon cultivation can be a new opportunity for farmers' income buildout of an agro-industrial chain, enhancing all the components of the crop development of innovative bio-products suitable for the southern regions climate as it grows on marginal and arid lands

Soil regeneration by cardoon from the seeds, we obtain a basic compound for the production of bioplastic and biochemicals like pelargonic acid, a natural, renewable and fossil free herbicide

A circular bio

economy start up

from biomass we produce bales for mushrooms cultivation

Pleurotus Eryngii king brown mushroom - good for immune system function as cholesterol-lowering dietary agent - excellent anti-inflammatory and antioxidant food, recommended for the proper functioning of the cardiovascular system A good source of protein, thiamin, vitamin B6, folate, iron, magnesium, zinc and manganese
